and keep it as a reserve fund, in case of emergencies, such as any grandson being drawn as a recruit, in which case a £100 would be requisite to redeem him.

I should be greatly obliged to you, if you would send me the photographs of Mr Gladstone and Sir Charles Dilke, I suppose they can be easily obtained. That of Lord Houghton I received from him, at my request, many years since. I am only sorry I have not that of my poor friend Severn.

With kindest remembrances and Christmas congratulations to all your family. Believe me to remain

Yours most sincerely

My dear Mr. Forman

I have just received your letter, containing the document for the Paymaster General, which according to your request I hasten to forward, I believe properly filled up. I suppose the signature of the Consul is not requisite.

Kind wishes to all your family

Yours very sincerely
J Hart de Landa
